Directions: Cut out the small group number labels and attach them to student desks so each student knows which group they are in. On a sticky note, write the word Recorder—the student responsible for entering the group’s responses into the Exploros experience—and attach it to the bottom of the corresponding group number label on that student’s desk to indicate who will serve as the recorder. (Note: Students and teachers can also view group numbers in the Dashboard view of the Exploros experience.)
